KEYNOTE SPEAKERS JUKKA TAKALA AND KEVIN MYERS:

‘A demand for evidence based research’

Keynote speakers Jukka Takala and Kevin Myers are both experts in the field of work-related cancer. How can we reduce exposure to carcinogens, according to them? Below are their inspiring visions.

KEVIN MYERS
President of the International Association of Labour Inspection

‘Ownership, leadership, partnership’

“I sometimes feel one can get desensitized to statistics,” Kevin Myers kick-starts his keynote address, “so just to put things into context: two million people are the number of combat-related fatalities each year in the first World War – and everyone agrees that was a horrendous carnage. But the reality is: that happens, every year, across the world, with the same amount of workers dying as a consequence of just going to work.”

The 6 existing Action Areas and their Strategic Objectives for IALI are:

1. IALI – the professional association - Objective: To provide the professional foundation for building strong, modernised and effective labour inspection worldwide.

2. IALI as influencer – Objective: To promote the profession and interests of labour inspection through development of spheres of influence.

3. IALI as partner – Objective: To build IALI’s participation in both formal and informal partnerships and alliances with related organisations and in specific projects to promote decent work around the world.

4. IALI as catalyst – Objective: To act as a catalyst for the development of regional cooperation in labour inspection.

5. IALI as facilitator and communicator – Objective: To provide information for members and to facilitate member initiatives to improve their labour inspection service.

6. IALI as source of technical expertise - Objective: To provide a resource for accessing technical expertise in labour inspection.
